Case Study

A Awards in Motion®
When a brewery created Burgers for the Hungry, a food shelf fundraising event, they wanted an award for the highest donor. The “Spinning Burger Award” was a fun way for the brewery to feature its prize-winning burger.

B IllumaPix™ Plaque
When the brewery won an award for Best of Beer, they created an IllumaPix™ crystal print featuring their magazine appearance.

C Bottle Cap & Keychain
As the brewery grew its fan base, the owners decided to offer a few gift items for sale. The bottle cap paperweight and quirky keychain are not only fun, they're also profitable.

The team at Old Goat Brewery needed a way to highlight their achievements, thank their investors, and celebrate! Here are some creative solutions.

E Encapsulates

What better way to showcase an award-winning recipe than inside a sparkling crystal? On display, yet still top secret, the founder's formula is safely tucked inside a crystal Encapsulate Award.

F Goal-Setter

It was important to track progress as the brewery grew. As revenue stacked up, so did the blocks on their Goal-Setter.

G Liuli Award

The orange Liuli crystal reinforces the brewery's orange logo. It serves as a stylish representation of the brand while communicating deep appreciation to its many investors.
